Diplomatic relations established between Pakistan and St. Kitts & Nevis

The Islamic Republic of Pakistan and St. Kitts & Nevis, a Caribbean country, today established formal diplomatic relations at a ceremony held at the Permanent Mission of Pakistan to the United Nations.

Ambassador Munir Akram, Permanent Representative of Pakistan to the UN and her counterpart, H.E. Dr. Dr. Mutryce Williams signed a joint communiqué to formally establish the diplomatic relations between the two countries.

Speaking on the occasion, Ambassador Munir Akram said that the formal establishment of the diplomatic relations between the two countries would open up avenues for cooperation in several fields such as finance, trade, investment, information technology.

Ambassador Akram said that it would provide an opportunity to the representatives of both countries at different tiers to have close and meaningful interaction, aimed at benefiting from each other's experiences. He said he looked forward to a renewed partnership with the Permanent Mission of St. Kitts & Nevis on the areas of common interest at the bilateral and multilateral forums.

Speaking on the occasion, H.E. Dr. Mutryce Williams, Permanent Representative of St. Kitts & Nevis thanked the Pakistan Mission for hosting the ceremony. She said both the countries might be located at the far ends of the world, they have had mutual respect and good will for each other.

The Ambassador said that the formal establishment of diplomatic relations between Pakistan and St. Kitts & Nevis would lead to cooperation in different fields, especially trade, tourism and education.
